Recommendations from Sandra Baigel of Voice & Word

I am confident to recommend the following people and their services to you.

When you speak with them, please let them know that you found their information on the Voice & Word website. Why? Because it's useful for your potential suppliers to know the source of advocacy, and why their services have been recommended.

Acumen Gentlemens' Outfitters – where you experience expertise with a smile. For genuine advice and easy shopping visit Frits Trijbets, menswear specialist.

Carnegie Wordsmith whose founder, Heather Carnegie, is a highly skilled writer. You can rely on her to produce words that attract and hold attention on websites, brochures, profiles and in CVs.

David Brewster offers a wide range of copywriting and ghostwriting services to business, industry and entrepreneurs. His services extend to preparation of material, manuscript editing and book publishing.

Image Quest – Look great – feel confident. Have the skills and knowledge to manage the perceptions others have of you with Helen Robinett.

www.glennindexofconflicthealth.com - James Glenn exposes the paradox of Conflict Health™ to leaders who are searching for astute conflict resolution strategies and solutions.

Seeking Media is a useful resource for keeping your organisation in the public eye. Create and distribute media releases from this site or talk to Tony Kaye about your specific requirements
